Our offering in Russia and the CIS: Industry sectors

KPMG's corporate citizenship and sustainability strategy consists of three major blocks:

Helping local communities

Projects aimed at helping children from social and biological risk groups

Educational Projects

Development of modern services for vulnerable children and their families
Fostering youth entrepreneurship

Environmental Projects

Projects aimed at reducing negative impact on the environment

The values and principles of social responsibility lie at the heart of business for all KPMG member firms. In Russia, KPMG drives its own social initiatives, partners with leaders in the not-for-profit sector, develops corporate volunteering, and, since 2011, has provided pro bono (excluding pro bono audit) services for partner not-for-profit organisations (NPOs)

All the programmes benefit from the help of leading experts in the social sphere and the participation of KPMG employees

In all its initiatives and programmes, KPMG strives for a sustainable outcome and to achieve positive change. We commit our resources to the areas where they are most needed

The firm where people want to work
