- 6.9. The list of persons entitled to attend a General Meeting shall be prepared on the basis of information contained in the register of the Company shareholders as on the date determined by the Board of Directors of the Company. The date of making the list of the persons entitled to attend the Meeting may not be earlier than the date of adoption of the resolution to convene the General Meeting and may not be more than fifty (50) days or, in cases specified in Paragraph 2 of Article 53 of the Federal Law, eighty-five (85) days prior to the date of the General Meeting. In the event of a General Meeting where the quorum is established and voting held with taking into account ballots received by the Company pursuant to Paragraph 2 of Clause 1 of Article 58 of the Federal Law, the date of making the list of the persons entitled to attend the Meeting shall be no later than 35 days prior to the date of the General Meeting.
- 6.10. Any General Meeting other than an annual General Meeting shall be considered an extraordinary General Meeting. An extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened by the Company's Board of Directors at its own initiative or upon a request of the Audit Commission, the Company external auditor, or shareholder(s) owning at least ten per cent (10%) of voting shares in the Company as at the date the request is submitted.
- 6.11. The Company's Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary General Meeting upon a request of the Audit Commission, the Company external auditor, or shareholder(s) owning at least ten per cent (10%) of the voting shares of the Company. A decision to convene or refuse to convene an extraordinary General Meeting upon a request of the Audit Commission, the Company's external auditor, or shareholder(s) owning at least ten per cent (10%) of voting shares in the Company, shall be taken by the Board of Directors within five (5) days after the request is made. Such decision shall be communicated to the persons requesting the convocation of an extraordinary General Meeting within three (3) days after the taking thereof. A decision to refuse convocation of an extraordinary General Meeting may be taken only in the cases provided for in the Federal Law.
- 6.12. An extraordinary General Meeting convened upon a request of the Audit Commission, the Company's external auditor, or shareholder(s) owning at least ten per cent (10%) of the voting shares in the Company shall be held within forty (40) days after the request for its convocation is submitted. If the proposed agenda of the extraordinary General Meeting contains an item on the election of the Board of Directors members, such General Meeting shall be held within seventy (70) days after the request to convene such General Meeting is submitted.

- 6.13. The Board of Directors shall not alter the wording of the agenda items or resolutions on these items, or change the proposed form for holding the extraordinary General Meeting convened upon a request of the Audit Commission, the Company's external auditor, or shareholder(s) owning at least ten per cent (10%) of voting shares in the Company.
- 6.14. If the Board of Directors fails to make a decision on convocation of the extraordinary General Meeting within the established period of time or decides to refuse to convene the extraordinary General Meeting, the Company body or person requesting convocation of such General Meeting may refer to court with a claim to enforce the Company to hold such extraordinary Meeting.
- 6.15. If the proposed agenda of the extraordinary General Meeting includes an item on election of members of the Company's Board of Directors to be elected by cumulative voting, the shareholder(s) holding in the aggregate at least two per cent (2%) of voting shares in the Company may nominate candidates to the Company's Board of Directors, the number of which may not exceed the numeric composition of the Board of Directors of the Company. Such proposals shall be delivered to the Company at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the extraordinary General Meeting.
- 6.16. The right to participate in a General Meeting may be exercised by a shareholder either in person or by a proxy. At the General Meeting, a shareholder's proxy shall exercise the authority based on the provisions of federal laws or regulations issued by duly authorized governmental bodies or local self-government bodies, or by a power of attorney made in writing in accordance with the requirements of federal laws. A shareholder may at any time replace his/its proxy at the General Meeting or attend the General Meeting personally.
- 6.17. Voting at a General Meeting shall be conducted by ballots. Voting ballots shall be distributed to shareholders no later than twenty (20) days prior to the date of the General Meeting.
- 6.18. A General Meeting shall be deemed competent (have the quorum) if shareholders holding in the aggregate more than one-half of the votes of the outstanding voting shares in the Company participate in the General Meeting. The shareholders, who were registered to participate in the General Meeting and the shareholders whose ballots were received no later than two days prior to the date of the General Meeting, shall be regarded as having participated in the General Meeting. If a General Meeting is held by absentee voting, the shareholders, whose ballots were received before the absentee ballots receipt deadline, shall be regarded as having participated in such General Meeting.

7. AUTHORITY OF THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

- 7.1. The following matters shall fall within the authority of the General Meeting:
